Join the football team

Barry likes eating snacks and watching football games. This year, he wants to join the school football team. He is fat.

Barry has sports lesson every Monday but Barry cannot run fast. Barry says, "I can't join the school football team." Jack says, "Two years ago I was weak and thin so I did a lot of sports like running and playing basketball. Now I am fit and strong."

Barry starts running, swimming and playing basketball so he loses his weight. In the end, Barry is fit and strong so he can join the school football team. He feels happy.
