The Country Park Adventure

Last Sunday, Mary and Tom were at home discussing what they should do for the day. Tom suggested going hiking. ‘Sure! I haven’t hiked in a while either,’ Mary replied. After some discussion, they decided to go to the famous Lion Rock Country Park in Kowloon.

At eight o’clock, they set off for the bus stop. They walked for ten minutes, then fifteen minutes, then thirty minutes. It felt like forever! A fellow hiker saw their expression, then kindly asked, ‘Are you guys lost? Where are you trying to go?’ Mary said, ‘Yes, can you tell us where the bus stop is and how far it is?’ The hiker replied, ‘It’s a long way. It’s ten kilometres away from here, it takes one hour and forty-five minutes to walk there.’ When they arrived at the bus stop, they saw a long queue. Mary suggested, ‘The bus is very crowded, it is uncomfortable.’ Tom said, ‘Then let’s take a taxi, it’s more convenient and more comfortable.’ Mary added, ‘Sure, taxis are as fast as a flash, we will make it there in no time!’

In the end, they arrived at Lion Rock Country Park at around ten o’clock. ‘This is a very crazy day,’ they both exclaimed. Then they happily ran to the trail.

In this story, I learnt the importance of being well prepared, otherwise, you will face many troubles.
